2018 SaskTel Tankard Men's Provincial Curling Championship awarded to Estevan, SK

Affinity Place in Estevan, SK plays home to the Estevan Bruins of the Saskatchewan Junior Hockey League. But in February of 2018, they will play host to the other sport played by men on ice for the Men's Provincial Curling Championship.

The 2018 SaskTel Tankard Provincial Men's Curling Championship will be hosted at the Affinity Place in Estevan, January 31 – February 4, 2018. The SaskTel Tankard, which will mark the 13th year of the title sponsorship.

Affinity Place is a multi-purpose entertainment and sports facility that recently opened its doors in 2011. The 2,200-seat arena along with private lounges and suites will provide the ultimate curling fans to a comfortable and first class view of the action. "The beautiful and fantastic facility will provide the best ice conditions for the competitors as well as give that ultimate fan experience. I know the host committee will put on a first class show for all involved during the week," said Ashley Howard, Executive Director of CURLSASK.

The road to the 2018 Tim Hortons Brier will go through Estevan, giving the opportunity and pleasure for a Saskatchewan team to play in a hometown Brier, which takes place March 3-11.

The 16-team field will make their way to Estevan to compete for the provincial title and the right to represent Saskatchewan in a hometown Brier in Regina. In the fall of 2017, teams will be qualifying through the Canadian Team Ranking System, Saskatchewan Curling Tour System, as well as Northern & Southern Provincial Playdowns.

Availability for tickets to the 2018 SaskTel Tankard will be announced at a later date.
